WORLD PRESS FREEDOM DAY

To commemorate World Press Freedom Day, students across the entire school worked with their teachers to create an exciting and informative programme. This event took place over the school day under this year's global theme: Journalism Under Digital Siege.

Form 4 students recorded a news segment for Ridge Radio 99.9 MHz, which was broadcast school wide. Activities continued with pupils of the Junior School taking turns to present recitals, followed by a Pulitzer award winning interview with Mr Emmanuel Gbedemah (TRRS History Teacher), a onetime freelance journalist who holds a degree from the Ghana Institute of Journalism.

We were also pleased to welcome Mr Caleb Kudah, CitiFM and CitiTV journalist and producer of the award-winning morning show programme CitiCBS. Senior School students enjoyed an inspiring interview with media giants from Excellence in Broadcasting (EIB) Network, led by its CEO & TRRS Parent, Mr. Nathan Anokye-Adisi, AKA Bola Ray.

He was joined by Female Broadcast Journalist of the Year Ms. Lily Mohammed, and the Morning Show host of StarrFM, Mr Francis Abban. The panel emphasised the importance of strong reading, writing and communication skills to succeed in a professional career in journalism. It was an excellent day much enjoyed by all in attendance.

Variety Show

SUMMER 2022

TRRS is a school that celebrates students' talents and encourages students to express their skills. Between the 10th and 13th of May, students were given the platform to showcase their various talents. Singing, dancing, acting, rapping and various acts were performed. Students cheered their fellow classmates on as they took the stage and mesmerised the audience with their flawless performances. This term's variety show was just the beginning; a sneak peak into what we have in store for Christmas term of the next academic year. The next variety show will be even bigger and better. Sit back and relax, because you will surely enjoy the show!

Ghanaian History Over the Century

Ghana is a nation rich in culture and diversity. From the 16th to the 20th of May our students celebrated Ghanaian heritage and how it has changed over the century. Students performed skits based on historical events that had a huge impact on the development of Ghana, Ghana's plentiful resources and many other topics. They played traditional Ghanaian games such as Ampe, Oware, and Ludo. Students were taken through the process of preparing products such as Shea butter. Individual classes chose an Adinkra symbol that would represent their class.

These symbols all have very powerful meanings and could be applied in various instances, not to mention their beautiful decoration. It was a great way to celebrate our Ghanaian heritage and how it has evolved over time.

GAMES NIGHT

On the 6th and 20th of May, our Activities and Events committee planned our first after school event post Covid-19. Students had an evening filled with games, music, food and fun. There were a series of intense volleyball matches between the students, as well as some exciting badminton tournaments. Students were jamming along to music, enjoying delicious snacks, laughing, playing card games and many more. It was a fun way for them to bond with each other and take a break from working so hard.

Form 1 and 2 had their Games Night on Friday May 20th, bringing a long week of mocks for the Form 2s to an exhilarating end. They danced along to music, even persuading some of their teachers to join. Overall, both events were extremely successful.

Family means everything to me in the sense that family gives you emotional support and keeps pushing you to do everything to your best ability.

AFRICAN UNITY DAY

TRRS is a school that not only yields exceeding academic performance but celebrates our various cultures ! On the 25th of May, we celebrated African Unity day with a variety of class performances from countries such as; Kenya, Morrocco, South Africa and Nigeria. Students were encouraged to embrace African arts and express themselves through crafted performances by each class. Cultural dances, songs and educational skits were presented such as the traditional dance of Shikat performed by Form 2 Atifi. All showcases were created by students themselves, encouraging them to research and provide an entertaining performance for us all, as we learnt about Africa's unity. To cap off a day of fun and educative performances, our Lower 6 students delivered delicious local food to the students. These were a range of yummy snacks such as kebabs, fried yam, Kalyppo, Sobolo, and a variety of Fan Milk products. We look forward to more astounding performances, in future, as we continue to cultivate students that appreciate other cultures.
